Opening: Andy Warhol at Sperone Westwater

Curated by Vincent Fremont, one of the founders of the Andy Warhol Foundation (and former CEO of a holding company that once owned ARTnews), this show serves as the follow-up to a recent exhibition staged by Fremont and David Kratz at the New York Academy of Art. That exhibition focused on works on paper produced as late as the 1980s, while the second features 125 drawings made by Warhol in the '50s and '60s, with flowers, portraits, religious iconography, and travel imagery in the mix.

Sperone Westwater, 257 Bowery, 6–8 p.m.
