12. "Bruce Nauman: Contrapposto Studies, i through vii" at Sperone Westwater

The new seven-screen video installation by the famed artist is characteristically hostile to easy description. It sounds as if it consist of images of the artist's own body, seen frontally or in profile, and in both positive and negative, while walking both backwards and forwards. I guess you have to see it to get the idea, but Nauman's legend proceeds him, so it is well worth doing so. (Ben Davis)

"Contrapposto Studies, i through vii" will be on view at Sperone Westwater, 257 Bowery, from September 10–October 29, 2016.
